Książka Dona Heddesheimera The First Holocaust: Jewish Fundraising Campaigns With Holocaust Claims During and After World War One, [Pierwszy holokaust: żydowskie kampanie zbierania funduszy z holokaustu podczas i po I wojnie światowej] jest ważnym kawałkiem rewizjonistycznej układanki. Autor przekonująco dokumentuje mnóstwo wcześniejszych prób żydowskich upowszechniania zwodniczej i nieprawdziwej propagandy okrucieństwa przed, podczas i po I wojnie światowej.

Pierwszy holokaust pokazuje zdumiewającą kolekcję wycinków z gazet i artykułów propagandowych od końca XIX wieku, które mówiły o cierpieniach i nadchodzącej eksterminacji europejskiego żydostwa. W nich odkrywamy, że dziesiątki razy przed II wojną światową Żydzi przywoływali kabalistyczną liczbę “6 milionów”, jako liczbę Żydów na skraju śmierci i destrukcji, w różnych okresach zamieszek i konfliktów w Europie i Rosji. Niewątpliwie książka demaskuje celowy oszukańczy charakter tych żydowskich kampanii i ataków medialnych, na długo zanim Hitler został kanclerzem Niemiec w roku 1933, zaprojektowanych na wzbudzanie sympatii opinii publicznej i uzyskanie wsparcia finansowego dla żydowskich ambicji politycznych, głównie ustanowienia państwa Izrael.

Obsesyjne posługiwanie się kabalistyczną bajką o “6 mln zmarłych lub umierających Żydach” sprzed co najmniej 40 lat przed II wojną światową, bezpośrednio osłabia i zdradza pojęcie, jak twierdzili, że w latach 1939-1945 w Europie zginęło 6 mln Żydów. To było kłamstwem za pierwszym razem, i jest kłamstwem teraz!

Zachodnie społeczeństwa gojowskie przez dziesięciolecia były zalewane i wszczepiane niekończącym się pokazem hollywoodzkich filmów o holokauście, programów telewizyjnych, “doku-seriałami”, książkami i wspomnieniami łączącymi się z obowiązkową “edukacją o holokauście” w północno-amerykańskich i europejskich szkołach. Głównym zadaniem tej podstępnej globalnej kampanii propagandowej jest tylko pranie nie-żydowskich mózgów i doprowadzenie ich do skrajnego strachu i paraliżu, podczas gdy stajemy się zniewoleni ideologicznie, gospodarczo i fizycznie przez żydowskie plemię. Zorganizowano ją również po to, żeby zdelegalizować wszelką krytykę Żydów i państwa Izrael, oraz omotania nie-Żydów do zaakceptowania pro-żydowskich i pro-syjonistycznych poglądów. Poprzez nienawistne kłamstwa holokaustyczne, syjonistyczni mitomani uczą masy dzieciaków nienawiści do Niemców, i ogólnie do Europejczyków. Te dzieciaki, nie mające wystarczającej wiedzy i nie umiejące za siebie myśleć, kiedy dorosną, ślepo wierzą w te wszystkie bajki, i nigdy nie kwestionują tego co im powiedziano. Indoktrynacja młodych syjonistyczną fikcją “holokaustyczną” czyni permanentne uszkodzenia w umysłach młodych ludzi. Karmienie na siłę dzieci i nastolatków przekrętami i kłamstwami o II wojnie światowej, żeby sympatyzowali z żydowskim narodem i zdradzieckimi sprawami żydowskimi, takimi jak syjonizm i komunizm, jest niemoralne, destrukcyjne, szkodliwe i kryminalne. Trzeba z tym skończyć!

Można zadać sobie pytanie: “jakie jest znaczenie liczby ‘6 mln’ i skąd się wzięła?”

Rzeczywiście intrygujące jest pochodzenie mitycznej liczby “6 mln”. Żydzi uparcie podkreślali ją w propagandzie horroru od roku 1890 do 1945. Druga wojna światowa zakończyła się w 1945 roku, i od tego czasu ta kabalistyczna liczba zdobyła pozycję świętości, dzięki lichej i oszukańczej kampanii wielokrotnego mówienia o holo-oszustwie w wiadomościach i przemyśle rozrywkowym z ośrodkiem w żydowskim Hollywood. Jak kiedyś powiedział żydowsko-komunistyczny morderca, Władimir Lenin, “wielokrotnie powtarzane kłamstwo staje się prawdą”. Ta kampania żydowskiego oszustwa potęgowała się na przestrzeni lat. Kiedy Żydzi wyczuwają wśród gojowskiej opinii publicznej wzrost świadomości swojej zdrady i globalnych zbrodni przeciwko ludzkości (naturalna reakcja oburzenia i wrogości), tym głośniejszą zaczynają lamentować o wymyślonym przez siebie holokaucie w kontrolowanych przez nich ośmiorniczych mediach. To dlatego zawsze mierzą puls opinii publicznej.

Światowi przywódcy, prezydenci, premierzy, królowie i królowe, papieże, księża i święte osoby wszystkich religii, na klęczkach czołgają się w szacunku do mitycznych “6 mln Żydów”, którzy nie zginęli w “nazistowskich komorach gazowych”, bo takie komory nie istniały i były niemożliwe (zobacz VHO, IHR, CODOH, WSMOT, Zundelsite, Nazi Gassings Never Happened) Badania pokazują, że powód tej dziwnej żydowskiej obsesji związanej z liczbą 6 mln bierze się ze starożytnego proroctwa religijnego w Torze. Według pewnych źródeł, proroctwo to przewidywało, że zanim naród żydowski będzie mógł wysunąć roszczenia i zdobyć Palestynę, by ustanowić żydowską ojczyznę zwaną “Izrael”, musi zginąć 6 mln Żydów w ofierze całopalenia (czyli holokaucie), jako ofierze złożonej ich żadnej krwi boskości, YHWH. (Zobacz Weintraub, Ben. The Holocaust Dogma of Judaism: Keystone of the New World Order. Washington, D.C.: Cosmo Pub., 1995.) Żydowski autor Benjamin Blech potwierdził to w książce “The Secrets of Hebrew Words” [Tajemnice hebrajskich wyrazów] confirmed this reality (J Aronson Inc., 1991, p. 241), twierdząc:

“Hebrajskie słowo ‘powrócisz’ (TaShaVu) wydaje się być napisane niepoprawnie. Gramatycznie wymaga innego (vav), i powinno być (TaShUVU). Dlaczego brakuje mu litery (vav) oznaczającej sześć? [TaShaVU] bez vav to przepowiednia dla narodu żydowskiego o ostatecznym powrocie do ich narodowej ojczyzny. Według numerologii TaShaVU daje 708: tav = 400, shin = 300, vei = 2, vey = 6. Kiedy piszemy rok, ignorujemy millenia. W 1948 roku świeckiego kalendarza, widzimy cud żydowskiego powrotu do Izraela. W hebrajskim kalendarzu był to rok 5708. Był to rok przepowiedziany niekompletnym słowem (TaShuVu), powrócisz. Powróciliśmy, brakowało 6 – najważniejszych 6 mln naszych ludzi, którzy zginęli w holokaucie. Ale spełnienie przepowiedni powrotu dokładnie w tym roku sugerowane przez gematrię TaShuVU daje pewną nadzieję, że słowa proroków o Ostatecznym Odzyskaniu sprawdzą się również”.

YOU SHALL RETURN

In the days when slavery existed, the Torah decreed that there must come a time when every man goes free. Even those who resold themselves after six years of servitude, and had their ears pierced for voluntary enslavement, could not remain beyond the time of the Jubilee.

וּקְדַשְׁתֶּם אֶת שְׁנַת הַחֲמִישִׁים שָׁנָה וּקְרַאתֶם דְּרוֹר בְּאַרְץ
לְכָל-יֹשְׁבֶיהָ יוֹבֵל הוּא תִּהְיֶה לָכֶם

(Ve-kidashtem et shenat ha-hamishim shanah u-keratem deror ba-arez le-khol yoshveha yovel hi tihyeh lakhem)

"And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

[Leviticus 25:10]

These are the words chosen to be inscribed on the Liberty Bell. It is in the Jubilee year that "ye shall return every man unto his possession and ye shall return every man unto his family."

The Hebrew word for "ye shall return," תָּשׁוּבוּ (TaShuVU), seems to be spelled incorrectly. Grammatically it requires another ו (vav). It ought to read תָּשׁוּבוּ (TaShUVU).

Why is it lacking the letter ו (vav), which stands for 6? תָּשׁוּבוּ (without the "vav") is a prediction to the Jewish people of ultimate return to their national homeland. תָּשׁוּבוּ in numbers adds up to 708: ת (tav) = 400, ש (shin) = 300, ב (vet) = 2, ו (vav) = 6. When we write the year, we ignore the millennia. In 1948 on the secular calendar, we witnessed the miracle of Jewish return to Israel. On the Hebrew calendar it was the year 5708. That was the year pre-

[Cytat 1] Proroctwa żydowskie w Torze stawiają wymóg, że musi “zniknąć” 6 mln Żydów zanim będzie możliwe ustanowienie państwa Izrael. “Powróćcie minus 6 mln”. To dlatego izraelski historyk, Tom Segev, oświadczył, że “6 mln” stanowi próbę przekształcenia historii o holokaucie w państwową religię. Te 6 mln, jak mówi proroctwo, musiało zniknąć w “palących się piecach”, co legalizuje teraz sądowa wersja holokaustu. I rzeczywiście, Robert B Goldmann pisze: “. . . bez holokaustu nie byłoby żydowskiego państwa”. Prosta konsekwencja: Jeśli się uwzględni 6 mln Żydów zagazowanych w Auschwitz, którzy skończyli w “palących się piecach” (grecki holokaust = spalone ofiary), to proroctwa zostały “spełnione” i Izrael może stać się “legalnym państwem”. – autor nieznany

[Cytat 2] W kwestii liczby “6 mln” powinno się wiedzieć, że: w hebrajskim tekście proroctw w Torze, czytamy “powróćcie”. W tekście tym nie występuje litera “V” lub “VAU”, gdyż w hebrajskim nie ma cyfr; litera V oznacza 6. Ben Weitraub, badacz religijny, dowiedział się od rabinów, że brakująca litera oznacza liczbę ‘6 mln’. A zatem proroctwo mówi: Powróćcie, ale w liczbie mniejszej o 6 mln. Zobacz Ben Weitraub: “The Holocaust Dogma of Judaism” [Dogmat holokaustu w judaizmie], Cosmo Publishing, Waszyngton 1995, s. 3. Musi brakować 6 mln zanim Żydzi będą mogli powrócić do Ziemi Obiecanej. Według Jahwe jest to oczyszczenie dusz grzesznego ludu. Żydzi muszą, po powrocie do Ziemi Obiecanej, być czyści, oczyszczenie musi nastąpić poprzez spalenie. – korespondent.

Czy to tylko zbieg okoliczności, że marna i śmieszna historia o “6 mln Żydów” zamordowanych w “komorach gazowych” i spalonych w “piecach” w obozach koncentracyjnych podczas II wojny światowej, dała Żydom impet i PR-owską broń, których potrzebowali żeby dokonać “wspaniałego powrotu” na “ziemię obiecaną” po zakończeniu wojny – zajmując i czyszcząc etnicznie większość Palestyny poprzez terroryzm i siłę broni – ustanawiając rasistowskie “państwo żydowskie” zwane “Izraelem” w 1948 roku? I to wszystko zdarza się w 100 procentach zgadzać ze wcześniej zacytowanym fragmentem proroctwa Tory? Nie sądzę!

Obecnie bajka pt. holokaust™ przybrała formę dziwaczного kultu, wymuszonego przez państwo i chronionego przez religię dogmatu (holościjaństwo), skoro nielegalne jest kwestionowanie, dyskutowanie lub negowanie w dziesiątkach europejskich krajów, podlegające ciężkim karom pieniężnym i więzienia! Ta naciągana, trąbiona przez syjonistów teoria spiskowa jest wykorzystywana przez żydowskich tekściarzy i oszukańczych artystów jako wytwórnia pieniędzy – oszustwo o niemal planetarnych proporcjach, przez żydowskiego profesora, Normana Finkelsteina, nazwane “Przedsiębiorstwem holokaustu”. Ponadto, ten mit wymyślili żydowscy gorliwcy jako ideologiczny młot do bicia w głowę Gojów, kiedy tylko nie-Żydzi ośmielą się krytykować lub sprzeciwiać globalnemu bandytyzmowi i złym wpływom samo-wyznawcom “wybranego narodu”.

Poniżej reprodukcje licznych wycinków prasowych pokazujących kabalistyczną liczbę 6 mln, od roku 1900. Zauważmy nieustanne odnoszenie się do “6 mln Żydów”, nieustanne błagania o pieniądze i ziemię (Palestyna), i określenie “holokaust” często używane przed rokiem 1940. Warto zauważyć, że autorami ogromnej większości tych artykułów propagandowych byli najbogatsi żydowscy bankierzy z Wall Street, jak również przywódcy syjonistycznych grup nacisków – wśród nich Schiffowie i Warburgowie. (Więcej przykładów here, here i here; podziękowania temu bloggerowi <http://winstonsmithministryoftruth.blog...361ed6a88d> za odszukanie wielu z tych wycinków).

1900- Amerykański syjonista, rabin Stephen S Wise, przemycił program syjonistyczny za oszustwem holokaustu, żeby wypromować sympatię opinii publicznej dla syjonizmu (żydowskie przejęcie Palestyny): “Tam jest 6 mln żywych, krwawiących, cierpiących argumentów opowiadających się za syjonizmem”.

RABBI WISE'S ADDRESS.

Rabbi Wise said, in part:

"The day will never come when I will care less for Zion, when there will be any one who will strive more for the glorious ideals of Zionism.

"Two great conventions of Jews are being held to-night. In Chicago there is a conference of charities called together by men who minister to the wants of the poor. They have assembled to see that too much charity is not given to the unworthy. Their purpose is right. But ours is the greater charity. We have assembled not to see that the Jew does not get too much, but that every Jew shall get the right to live.

"There are 6,000,000 living, bleeding, suffering arguments in favor of Zionism. They come not to beg, but ask for that which is higher than all material things. They seek to have satisfied the unquenchable thirst after the ideal. They ask to become once again the messengers of right, justice, and humanity.

"Your Christian friends will honor you if you have enough self-respect to care for your own people. Say that you are not a Jew, and you will be hated as a Jew, nevertheless. But say that you are an American Jew, and strive for the best principles of the race, you will be respected and the Zionist name honored.

"Of Israel and Zion one thing is true. They can conquer. God is our leader, and with the General of the heavenly hosts to lead who will say that we go not to victory?

"In the old Greek games, the man who won the race was not he who went fastest, but the one who bore a lighted torch to the end of the course.

"We Zionists have entered a race, the torch of liberty, charity, and justice in our hands.

"The race will be won, not because we are fastest but because that lamp is a light unto the world. It will never be extinguished.

"Come, brethren, the lamp is in your hands; run the race and may God give you the victory forever."

Other speakers were Dr. M. Mintz, Dr. Robert L. Halperin of Chicago, and the Rev. Dr. B. Drachman.

The Zion hymn by the Rev. Dr. H. Pereira Mendes, was sung at the conclusion of the speaking. The band of the Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Society Orphan Asylum, under direction of I. L. Fauerbach, played a number of selections.

1902- Pod hasłem “antysemityzm”, X wydanie Encyclopedia Britannica mówi o “systematycznie upodlanych ’6 mln Żydów’ w Rumunii i Rosji”.

10th Edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica (1902) Entry for 'Antisemitism'

While the main activity of anti-Semitism has manifested itself in Germany, Russia, Rumania, Austria-Hungary and France, its vibratory influences have been felt in other countries when conditions favourable to its extension have presented themselves. In England more than one attempt to acclimatise the doctrines of Marr and Treitschke has been made. The circumstance that at the time of the rise of German anti-Semitism a premier of Hebrew race, Lord Beaconsfield, was in power first suggested the Jewish bogey to English political extremists. The Eastern crisis of 1876-1878, which was regarded by the Liberal party as primarily a struggle between Christianity, as represented by Russia, and a degrading Semitism, as represented by Turkey, accentuated the anti-Jewish feeling, owing to the anti-Russian attitude adopted by the government. Violent expression to the ancient prejudices against the Jews was given by Sir J. G. Tollemache Sinclair (A Defence of Russia, 1877). Mr T. P. O'Connor, in a life of Lord Beaconsfield (1878), pictured him as the instrument of the Jewish people, "moulding the whole policy of Christendom to Jewish aims." Professor Goldwin Smith, in several articles in the Great Britain, 40.

Baron de Hirsch founded a colossal scheme for transplanting persecuted Jews to new countries under new conditions of life, and endowed it with no less a sum than £9,000,000 (see HIRSCH, MAURICE DE).

Though anti-Semitism has been unmasked and discredited, it is to be feared that its history is not yet at an end. While there remain in Russia and Rumania over six millions of Jews who are being systematically degraded, and who periodically overflow the western frontier, there must continue to be a Jewish question in Europe; and while there are weak governments, and ignorant and superstitious elements in the enfranchised classes of the countries affected, that question will seek to play a part in politics.

LITERATURE.—No impartial history of modern anti-Semitism has yet been written. The most comprehensive works on the subject, Jews among the Nations, by A. Leroy-Beaulieu (1893), and L'Antisemitisme, son histoire et ses causes, by Bernard Lazare (1894), are collections of studies rather than histories. M. LAZARE's work will be found most useful by the student on account of its detached standpoint and its valuable bibliographical notes. A good list of works relating to Jewish ethnography will be found at the end of M. Isaac Loeb's valuable article, "Juda," in the Dictionnaire universel de géographie (1884). To these should be added, Adolf

1905- Żydowski kaznodzieja głosi, że jeśli komunistyczne powstanie w Rosji (pod żydowskim przywództwem) odniesie sukces w realizacji ich dawnego celu, obalenia carskiego rządu, syjonizm stanie się przeżytkiem. Wspomina o “6 mln Żydów”.

END OF ZIONISM, MAYBE.

Jewish Preacher's View of Uprising in Russia.

The Rev. Dr. M. H. Harris spoke in the Temple Israel, Fifth Avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street, yesterday morning at the regular services on the "Russian Situation." He prefaced his remarks by reference to the Testaments and to history to show that the people had gradually received a larger sphere of freedom from nations and Governments for the exercise of their powers and duties.

He declared that a free and a happy Russia, with its 6,000,000 Jews, would possibly mean the end of Zionism, since the abolition of the autocracy would practically eliminate the causes that brought Zionism into existence.

Russia, he said, seemed to prefer its own bloody experience in learning the power of the people to profiting by the experience and the history of other nations.

The New York Times pisze: "Od roku 1890 do 1902, Konstantin Pietrowicz Pobiedonoscew, prokurator generalny, spowodował wypędzenie z Rosji 6 mln żydowskich rodzin". Gdyby w Rosji było 6 mln żydowskich rodzin (jedna składająca się z matki, ojca i co najmniej jednego dziecka), w Rosji żyłoby co najmniej 18 mln Żydów? Absurdalna niemożliwość. Czyste bzdury.

POBIEDONOSTZEFF, RESIGNS.

Chief Procurator of the Holy Synod
Most Hated Man in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—Constantine Petrovitch Pobiedonostzeff, Chief Procurator of the Holy Synod, has resigned.

Constantine Petrovitch Pobiedonostzeff, now in his seventy-eighth year, has been a prominent factor in the internal life of the Russian Empire for the last fifty years, and is the most hated man in Russia to-day.

Since his appointment as Procurator General of the Holy Synod, in 1880, he has persecuted the Jews, Lutherans, Catholics, and other dissenting sects with an unswerving fanatical zeal. From 1890 to 1902 he caused 6,000,000 Jewish families to be expelled from Russia and sent thousands of Poles to Siberia. His watchword was "Russia for the Orthodox Russians." Cossacks were ordered to surround the Catholic churches in Poland and shoot down the congregations as they came out.

1906- Żydowski publicysta przed publicznością w Niemczech stwierdza, że rosyjski rząd znalazł "rozwiązanie kwestii żydowskiej", a mianowicie "morderczą eksterminację" "6 mln Żydów". Oczywiście Rosjanie nigdy nie mieli takich planów, ale ta fikcyjna opowieść ożyła podczas II wojny światowej, tym razem oskarżono o to Niemców. "Oficjalną historię" o "holokauście" krzewiono po raz pierwszy w 1906 roku, oskarżano o nią Rosję. Zbieg okoliczności? Nie sądzę.

Dr. Paul Nathan's View of Russian Massacre

STARTLING reports of the condition and future of Russia's 6,000,000 Jews were made on March 12 in Berlin to the annual meeting of the Central Jewish Relief League of Germany by Dr. Paul Nathan, a well-known Berlin publicist, who has returned from an extensive trip through Russia as the special emissary of Jewish philanthropists in England, America, and Germany, to arrange for distribution of the relief fund of $1,500,000 raised after the massacres last Autumn.

Dr. Nathan paints a horrifying picture of the plight and prospects of his coreligionists, and forecasts at any hour renewed massacres exceeding in extent and terror all that have gone before. He left St. Petersburg with the firm conviction that the Russian Government's studied policy for the "solution" of the Jewish question is systematic and murderous extermination.

Dr. Nathan read to the meeting a circular addressed to the garrison of Odessa, calling upon the soldiers to "rise and crush the traitors who are plotting to upset the holy Government of the Czar and substitute for it a Jewish empire." →

He concluded with an appeal to the Jewish money powers of the world to arrest Russia's career as a borrower. The financiers of the world should call a halt to Russia, not only for humanitarian reasons, but for practical reasons. Russia's bankruptcy is an established fact, he added.

Uwaga: 1906 to rok po nieudanym komunistycznym powstaniu dowodzonym przez Żydów. Ta zmuszająca do szlochu historia była niczym innym niż sposobem odwrócenia uwagi opinii publicznej od faktu, że to komunistyczne powstanie miało miejsce w Rosji rok wcześniej i było dziełem jego kumpli-Żydów, którzy dokonali ogromnych okrucieństw na rosyjskich patriotach (anty-komunistach).

1908- Żydzi Donmeh organizują zamach stanu w Imperium Otomańskim i odbierają władzę sułtanowi.

1910- W corocznym raporcie Amerykańskiego Komitetu Żydowskiego mówi się, że od 1890 roku Rosja stosowała politykę “wypędzania i eksterminacji” 6 mln Żydów. (źródło: American Jewish Yearbook s. 15)

Pierwotnie Żydzi twierdzili, że Rosjanie planowali mord 6 mln Żydów. Ożywili tę historię podczas II wojny światowej i o to samo oskarżyli Niemcy.

WASHINGTON OFFICE

The Washington Office has been continued, and has, as heretofore, proved of great usefulness in keeping your Committee informed of affairs in Washington.

RUSSIA

The position of our co-religionists in Russia grows increasingly deplorable, and recent advices from that country indicate that there is little likelihood of any relief being afforded.

The situation is of the gravest. It may be doubted whether Jewry has ever confronted a greater crisis since the overthrow of the Jewish state by the Roman Empire. Not even the horrible persecutions of the times of the Crusades or the expulsion from Spain and Portugal affected so large a mass of our co-religionists.

Russia has since 1890 adopted a deliberate plan to expel or exterminate six millions of its people for no other reason than that they refuse to become members of the Greek Church, but prefer to remain Jews. To carry out this purpose, it has used several methods. Wholesale assassinations (called pogroms), have been employed in order to arouse the religious fanaticism, the greed, and the savagery of the needy, the ignorant and the depraved among the Russian people. Horrible as these pogroms are, their effects are trivial compared with those which have followed other methods countenanced by that Government. The Jewish inhabitants of the congested Pale of Settlement are being harassed by restrictions on their ordinary activities, by practical denial to a serious extent of the right to educate their children, and by having thrust upon them by force, large numbers of their co-religionists who had settled in other places within the Empire and had there been usefully employed. By this insidious process, the Russian Government wickedly and artificially creates unnatural conditions that enable it to twist economic and social laws into the service of persecution, and it believes that by their operation the ultimate expulsion or destruction of the Jews of Russia is assured. From the point of view of that Government, this method has the further advantage that it avoids the cry of horror

1911- Max Nordau, współzałożyciel z Teodorem Herzlem Światowej Organizacji Syjonistycznej, na X Kongresie Syjonistycznym w Bazylei (Szwajcaria) wydał zdumiewające oświadczenie. Stwierdził, że zostanie unicestwionych 6 mln Żydów. Było to 21 lat zanim Hitler doszedł do władzy i 3 lata przed rozpoczęciem I wojny światowej.

Tak mówi syjonista Ben Hecht w książce “Perfidy”. Potwierdził to również w 1943 roku.

JEWS' INDIFFERENCE TO WAR AID REBUKED

Louis Marshall Denounces Apathy Toward Suffering of Co-Religionists.

"In the world today there are about 13,000,000 Jews, of whom more than 6,000,000 are in the very heart of the war zone: Jews whose lives are at stake and who today are subjected to every manner of suffering and sorrow, and the great American Jewish community is not doing its duty toward these sufferers. In the United States there are between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 Jews, nearly all able to do something and yet, after months of work, we have not raised more than $300,000. In New York there are more than 1,000,000 Jews, some of them persons of great affluence, but many of them seem to think if they give a few hundred dollars they have done their duty.

"We hear of pogroms in Russia, in Poland, in Galicia, and yet we sit indifferent. In Palestine starvation stalks through the land. Shall we selfishly enjoy ourselves and say we would like to, but cannot help because of hard times, and think we are doing our duty? No. The time has come for every man and woman and child to do his duty, and we must fulfill that duty quickly or it may be too late in hundreds of thousands of cases."

Dear Lord Rothschild,

I have much pleasure in conveying to you, on behalf of His Majesty's Government, the following declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionist aspirations which has been submitted to, and approved by, the Cabinet.

His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavours to facilitate the achievement of this object, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country.

I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

The Crucifixion of Jews Must Stop!

By MARTIN H. GLYNN

(Former Governor of the State of N. Y.)

From across the sea six million men and women call to us for help, and eight hundred thousand little children cry for bread.

These children, these men and women are our fellow-members of the human family, with the same claim on life as we, the same susceptibility to the winter's cold, the same propensity to death before the fangs of hunger. Within them reside the illimitable possibilities for the advancement of the human race as naturally would reside in six million human beings. We may not be their keepers but we ought to be their helpers.

In the face of death, in the throes of starvation there is no place for mental distinctions of creed, no place for physical differentiations of race. In this catastrophe, when six million human beings are being whirled toward the grave by a cruel and relentless fate, only the most idealistic promptings of human nature should sway the heart and move the hand.

Six million men and women are dying from lack of the necessities of life; eight hundred thousand children cry for bread. And this fate is upon them through no fault of their own, through no transgression of the laws of God or man; but through the awful tyranny of war and a bigoted lust for Jewish blood.

In this threatened holocaust of human life, forgotten are the niceties of philosophical distinction, forgotten are the differences of historical interpretation; and the determination to help the helpless, to shelter the homeless, to clothe the naked and to feed the hungry becomes a religion at whose altar men of every race can worship and women of every creed can kneel. In this calamity the temporalities of man's fashionings fall away before the eternal verities of life, and we awaken to the fact that from the hands of one God we all come and before the tribunal of one God we all must stand on the day of final reckoning. And when that reckoning comes mere profession of lips will not weigh a pennyweight; but deeds, mere intangible deeds, deeds that dry the tear of sorrow and allay the pain of anguish, deeds that with the spirit of the Good Samaritan pour oil and wine in wounds and find sustenance and shelter for the suffering and the stricken, will outweigh all the stars in the heavens, all the waters in the seas, all the rocks and metals in all the celestial globes that revolve in the firmament around us.

Race is a matter of accident; creed, partly a matter of inheritance, partly a matter of environment, partly one's method of ratiocination; but our physical wants and corporeal needs are implanted in all of us by the hand of God, and the man or woman who can, and will not, hear the cry of the starving; who can, and will not, take heed of the wail of the dying; who can, and will not, stretch forth a helping hand to those who sink beneath the waves of adversity is an assassin of nature's finest instincts, a traitor to the cause of the human family and an abjurer of the natural law written upon the tablets of every human heart by the finger of God himself.

And so in the spirit that turned the poor widow's votive offering of copper into silver, and the silver into gold when placed upon God's altar, the people of this country are called upon to sanctify their money by giving $35,000,000 in the name of the humanity of Moses to six million famished men and women.

Six million men and women are dying—eight hundred thousand little children are crying for bread.

And why?

Because of a war to lay Autocracy in the dust and give Democracy the sceptre of the Just.

And in that war for democracy 200,000 Jewish lads from the United States fought beneath the Stars and Stripes. In the 77th Division alone there were 14,000 of them, and in Argonne Forest this division captured 54 German guns. This shows that at Argonne the Jewish boys from the United States fought for democracy as Joshua fought against the Amalekites on the plains of Abraham. In an address on the so-called "Lost Battalion," led by Colonel Whittlesey of Pittsfield, Major-General Alexander shows the fighting stuff these Jewish boys were made of. In some way or another Whittlesey's command was surrounded. They were short of rations. They tried to get word back to the rear telling of their plight. They tried and they tried, but their men never got through. Paralysis and stupefaction and despair were in the air. And when the hour was darkest and all seemed lost, a soldier had stepped forward, and said to Col. Whittlesey: "I will try to get through." He tried, he was wounded, he had to creep and crawl, but he got through. To-day he wears the Distinguished Service Cross and his name is ABRAHAM KROTOSHENSKY.

Because of this war for Democracy six million Jewish men and women are starving across the seas; eight hundred thousand Jewish babies are crying for bread.

More Than Third of Entire

PITIFUL PICTURE DRAWN

By NATHAN STRAUS

NEW YORK, October 18.—Terrible as conditions have been for the last five years among the destitute Jews of Eastern Europe, they have never before been so appalling as they are at the present moment. With the coming of winter the climax of tragedy has been reached, according to the latest reports from American Jewish relief workers. In every part of these stricken countries, at no time since hostilities ceased has the suffering been so intense as it is now among the Jews in these unfortunate lands. Six million Jews, out of the 16,000,000 in the world, or considerably more than a third of the entire Jewish race, are today standing in bread lines or getting the soup on which they live from the soup kitchens of the Joint Distribution Committee of American Funds for Jewish War Sufferers.

ORPHANS LIVE ON STREETS

Thousands of them are sick, hundreds of thousands are without homes—all are destitute. A hundred thousand Jewish orphans, many of whom are sleeping and living on the streets, look forward with terror to the coming of the winter. It is impossible to compute the number of mothers who have gone insane as they watched their children starve or the number of typhus patients who are praying for death as they lie sick, without hospitals or medicines or sufficient food.

One year more of malnutrition has so weakened these poverty-stricken Jews that they will not be able to endure the rigors of the winter even as well as they did last year, when thousands of them died from cold and hunger. The number of refugees has been greatly increased also by the help of the Joint Distribution Committee of American funds for Jewish War Sufferers.

Every month this summer 27,000 Jewish children were sent to vacation homes to recover their strength, depleted by starvation. Last month 500 additional children were sent from Vienna to Holland, where private homes were to receive them and 500 other invalids were sent from Vienna to Trieste to convalesce.

Extensive as it seems, the aid now being given children in Eastern Europe does not nearly meet the need, and unless funds are raised to carry on the work on an infinitely greater scale, the coming spring will find comparatively few children alive in these stricken lands. Herbert Hoover of the American food commission, who just returned to America, commented upon this fact, and said that it would have been impossible for the food commission, to have kept between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 children in Eastern Europe alive even until now without the help of the American Jewish Relief Committee's funds.

There is no corner of Poland, Lithuania, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, or Palestine so remote that the Joint Distribution Committee of American Funds for Jewish War Sufferers has not reached it with some supplies for

Strike a Balance and Compare It With This—

While the 3,500,000 American Jews were loyally fighting and laboring to help "make the World safe for Democracy," the Jews of Eastern Europe, where lives the bulk of the world's Jewish population, were being ground out of existence by the ebb and flow of contending armies.

Today 6,000,000 Jews Are Facing the Darkest Days Ever Known in the Long History of the Race

Families are scattered—broken. A hundred thousand children are orphaned. Poverty is the common lot. Whole cities have not known a square meal in five years. Disease stalks on every hand. The death rate mounts to double—triple—quadruple—that ever before known in a civilized country.

America Is the Only Hope

In this, the greatest crisis that Jewry has ever known in centuries of suffering and persecution, the Jews of America turn to their fellow citizens of all races and creeds for that material and immediate aid which alone can save the survivors of the race in Europe from destruction.

$35,000,000 NEEDED!

This sum represents the amount sought from the country at large. Every cent of it will go to buy food, clothing, medicines and other necessities of life for the destitute, starving and utterly stricken men, women and children across the sea. It is veritable ransom money, for without it millions will surely die!

SIX MILLION PERISH IN SOVIET FAMINE

Peasants' Crops Seized, They and Their Animals Starve

Like harrowed land, two peasant women gather kernels of grain spilled in snowing. They must do this to keep alive in a land of plenty—the Ukraine

Russia's beautiful thoroughbred horses, known the world over, are used here in the agricultural districts. The animals, needed on every farm, are dying off by the millions of starvation.

Reporter Risks Life to Get Photographs Showing Starvation

STARVATION stalks through the Ukraine section of Soviet Russia, leaving a ghastly trail of death and agony. The Ukraine is the most fertile grain-producing district in Russia.

The facts contained in the series of articles, of which this is the first, were obtained by Thomas Walker, an American newspaperman, now resident in London, at the peril of his life.

When Mr. Walker entered Russia last Spring he was unaided in a corner.

While the photographs shown with these articles were obtained under the most adverse and dangerous possible circumstances, the evidence they present is more grim and graphic than words.

By THOMAS WALKER,

Rural Journalist and Traveler and Student of Russian Affairs, Who for Several Years Has Traveled the Cities of Soviet Republics.

I HAVE recently toured the Ukraine district of Soviet Russia, where 6,000,000 peasants have perished from starvation in the past six months, due to the excessive taxes exacted on their crops by the Bolshevik government.

Last Winter, Red Army soldiers, under orders from Moscow, took so much of the season's crops from the peasants that they were unable to feed themselves and their livestock through the winter.

Thousands accompanying the army of soldiers were taken at once to the front lines of the Ukraine. In the Ukraine, I saw the most terrible scenes of starvation I have ever seen. I saw many a peasant return before morning to his home, only to find his family dead.

In his article describing the enforced famine in the Ukraine, Thomas Walker tells of finding this little Russian peasant boy standing beside his dying father and weeping bitterly. The father had been shot for appropriating the closely rationed territory while the two were picking up crusts of wheat spilled on the ground. Now the boy must wander alone, almost certainly to die of starvation.

Death from starvation in a Soviet barn. Although he worked on a community farm where food was plentiful, this peasant could not get enough to eat. Two million died in a few years. Here one horse in dozens another is too weak to stand. Peasants begging food to save their livestock were driven off by armed soldiers.

"Daily Express" Special Political Correspondent.
ALL Israel is uniting in wrath against the Nazi onslaught on the Jews in Germany.
Adolf Hitler, swept into power by an appeal to elemental patriotism, is making history of a kind he least expected. Thinking to unite only the German nation in an unswerving loyalty to his race, he has instead united the whole Jewish people in a national reawakening.
The appearance of the swastika symbol of a new Germany has called forth the Lion of Judah, the old battle symbol of Jewish defiance.
Fourteen million Jews dispersed throughout the world have banded together as one man to declare war on the German persecutors of their co-religionists. National differences and antagonisms have been submerged in one common aim—the stand by the 600,000 Jews of Germany who are threatened by Hitlerist anti-Semitism, and to compel Fascist Germany to end its campaign of violence and oppression directed against the Jewish minority.
World Jewry has made up its mind not to rest content in face of this method of medieval Jew-baiting.

STILL a minor in 1930-31, this is the symbol of the Jewish state for national demonstrations with a Jewish aim.

Za to, jak również za powszechnie znane ich wsparcie dla komunizmu i silne zaangażowanie w krwawą rewolucję bolszewicką, naziści uznają Żydów za "wrogów państwa", ostatecznie zamykając ich w obozach koncentracyjnych i obozach pracy podczas II wojny światowej. ## BEFORE THE ROYAL COMMISSION

Dr. Weizmann Says . . .

Editor's Note: Commentators have declared Dr. Weizmann's speech before the Royal Commission in Palestine, an address which lasted some 2½ hours to be the greatest declaration regarding Palestine since the issuance of the Balfour Declaration. Since space does not permit us to print the text in full we are happy to present the following excerpts:

"I should like to present a tried statement of the background and motives behind the Zionist movement, which seeks the establishment of the Jewish National Home in Palestine. The stimulus and hope which animate Zionism cannot be understood without relationship to the position of the Jewish people in Central and Eastern Europe, where six million Jews are in a position which is neither life nor death. Only recently the Foreign Minister of Poland said that there are one million Jews too many in Poland. It is difficult to understand why Jews who had lived in Poland for a thousand years, shared its vicissitudes and made their contribution to the growth of the country

THE JEWISH CASE

DR. WEIZMANN BEFORE ROYAL COMMISSION

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT

JERUSALEM, Nov. 25

Dr. Chaim Weizmann, the Zionist leader, presented the historical and moral background of Zionism to the Royal Commission at its public session to-day.

He explained that the Jewish problem was two-fold. First was the "homelessness" of the Jews. While in Western Europe many individual Jews had happy homes, in Eastern Europe there were 6,000,000 unwanted unfortunates who were condemned to be penned up in places where they could not live. Even those in Western Europe were now threatened. Second was the world problem created by the presence of these 6,000,000 people without a future whose condition was a threat to Europe. A certificate permitting emigration to Palestine was regarded as a certificate of freedom.

Referring to the past history of the Jews, Dr. Weizmann claimed that there had never been a time when the Jews did not try to return to Palestine. He said that England had been interested in the project for 300 years and that the Balfour Declaration had been no more than a final link. That Declaration had not been a matter of "War expediency," but was a serious step in the culmination of long discussions. Originally the Jews had plainly understood the Declaration to mean the restoration to them of Judea as a Jewish State.

The Government had reminded them of their obligations towards others in the country, but the Jews could honestly say that these others had indirectly benefited by the work they had done.

THE "NATIONAL HOME"

Although the Jews regarded the limitation of immigration to the absorptive capacity of the country as an inadequate interpretation of the "National Home," yet the officials of the Jewish Agency had loyally adhered to the formula: but to limit immigration for other reasons was unthinkable. It was felt that there was an unlimited opportunity for expansion by the use of what was called uncultivable land; but unless the Government adopted a positive and dynamic policy Jewish work would be slow.

He defended the desire of the Jews to refrain from employing Arabs as they wished to make their home with their own hands, and in concluding said that the Jews had reluctantly opposed the establishment of a Legislative Council as a premature scheme which would be used by the Arabs to hinder the creation of the "National Home."

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—A petition addressed to Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin expressive of the hope that Great Britain will steer a course favoring the establishment of a free Jewish nation in Palestine such as would provide refuge for millions of persecuted Jews in Eastern Europe and Germany was presented to Sir Ronald Lindsay, the British Ambassador, today by a Christian delegation representing the Pro-Palestine Federation of America and headed by the Right Rev. James F. Freeman, Episcopal Bishop of Washington.

The petition, in expressing the opinion of enlightened Christian leadership in the United States, favoring a larger Jewish immigration into Palestine, stressed the intolerable sufferings of the millions of Jews in "the European holocaust."

Urges Definite Policy

It suggested the need for a clear and definite policy on the part of the British Government in the the salvation of Israel and restoration to its ancient patrimony. Great Britain has it within her power to throw open the gates of Palestine and let in the victimized and persecuted Jews escaping from the European holocaust.

Enlightened Christian opinion in America is now eager to see the provisions of the Palestine mandate carried out. It is eager to see the settling of the Jews in the land facilitated in accordance with the stipulations of the mandate. Above all it would welcome the removal of any impediments and obstructions to the social-economic development of the country, which untimely and premature projects of self-government would cause, in the present condition of the country.

Recognizes Problems

We are mindful of the complex and difficult task faced by His Majesty's government in Palestine. We also appreciate the anxiety and sincerity with which the Palestine Government is grappling with the problems there. We, however, feel that the right solution calls for a definite policy, which should, once and for all, make clear to the turbulent element in Palestine that His Majesty's government, as mandatory power, will carry out its trust to help transform Palestine into a Jewish homeland to which the persecuted Jews of the world may freely come, and where they may have the right to constitute themselves into a free nation.

It is our fond hope and sincere belief that in the present grave

Geneva, August 7.—Delegates of 32 countries representing six or seven million of the 16,000,000 Jews in the world arrived for the first world conference opening here tomorrow night, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, its president, told the press at a reception today.

He believed 250 of the 300 delegates named would attend and held the assembly to be "the first and most representative of its kind in Jewish history."

Dr. Wise defined the Congress as "an expression of the will of Jews from many lands earnestly to consider and publicly to discuss their common problems, to submit these to the non-Jewish world for understanding and co-operation and to the Jewish people for solution."

The number of Jews deprived of their rights and economic opportunity in Europe increased greatly last year, Dr. Bernhard Kahn, European director of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, said on his arrival here last week from Europe.

The new Government of Rumania has threatened to outlaw 800,000 Rumanian Jews, "disregarding peace treaties, minority treaties and the constitution of the country," said Dr. Kahn.

government except sometimes in cases of physical violence and public disturbance," he said.

"It is a matter for encouragement, however, that many outstanding personalities and some political parties in Poland are courageously raising their voices against the inhuman treatment of the Jews and the poisonous atmosphere of anti-Semitism.

"In Germany the Jews are being driven out of the last economic positions. Increased oppression is swelling the number of refugees and emigrants. More than 15,000 Jews had to leave Germany during the last year and in the middle of the year the German laws of racial discrimination were extended to the 12,000 Jew in Upper Silesia (the Danzig corridor)."

Dr. Kahn said there are 25,000 refugees in Europe, the greater number of them living in need and in demoralizing uncertainty. He expressed the hope that the inter-governmental conference at the League of Nations would take up the refugee problem again in February.

"Five to six million in all are today the victims of governmental anti-Semitism and policies of unchecked anti-Semitic propaganda and persecution. All these millions are in danger of losing their rights as citizens. Their economic existence is constantly menaced and for thousands upon thousands their

FIVE or six million Jews, uprooted by dictatorships and tossed about by economic storms, may have to depend upon the development of the Holy Land, under British mandate, as a solution to their difficulties. But they face the hostility of the Arabs living there, whose economic and religious interests conflict with theirs.

In North Palestine the Jews fence themselves in armed settlements as a protection against marauding Arab bands, while they try to work the poor land. With Britain anxious to get rid of her mandate, and with enemies in nearly every corner of the world, these "people without a country" are in a sorry plight.

Hitler żądał również drogi w korytarzu gdańskim łączącej Niemcy z Prusami Wschodnimi. Polska kategorycznie odmówiła spełnić wszystkie rozsądne żądania Hitlera.

We wrześniu Polska zaatakowana jest z zachodu przez Niemcy i ze wschodu przez Związek Sowiecki. Natychmiast Brytania i Francja wypowiadają wojnę Niemcom, rzekomo z powodu inwazji Hitlera na Polskę. Ale Brytania i Francja nie wypowiedziały wojny Związkowi Sowieckiemu, który zaatakował Polskę, a kilka miesięcy później Finlandię.

Przyczyną obwiniania przez sojuszników tylko Niemcy za inwazję na Polskę, a nie Sowietów, było to, że Związek Sowiecki od 1917 roku był pod władzą Żydów. Celem II wojny światowej cały czas było nie wyswobodzenie Polski, ale zniszczenie Niemiec, które wyrwały się spod uścisku Żydów. Alianci, którzy pierwotnie twierdzili, że interesowała ich suwerenność Polski, po zakończeniu wojny oddali Polskę, razem z resztą Europy Wschodniej, na łaskę sowiecko-komunistycznych rzeźników! Ta zdrada aliantów pokazuje, że ich w ogóle nigdy nie interesowała Polska. Polska była niczym innym niż pionkiem wykorzystanym przez alianckich podżegaczy do wciągnięcia Trzeciej Rzeszy w wojnę.

Alianci, którzy wypowiedzieli Niemcom wojnę w 1939 roku, uzasadniając to pretekstem, że Niemcy naruszyli suwerenność Polski poprzez inwazję, ODDALI Polskę Stalinowi i komunistycznym rzeźnikom, którzy w 1940 roku zamordowali 22.000 Polaków w Lesie Katyńskim!

W międzyczasie Żydzi lamentowali o “6 mln” bezradnych ofiar w lutym, 7 miesięcy nawet przed rozpoczęciem wojny. Ponad pół roku przed wybuchem wojny Żydzi już mówili o “6 mln bezbronnych ofiar prześladowań”.

Jewish Relief Appeal Starts Here Tomorrow

More than 200 volunteers will begin tomorrow a thorough canvass of St. Petersburg in behalf of the local campaign of the United Jewish Appeal for Refugees and Overseas Needs. It is the largest and most intensive drive ever conducted by American Jews for relief and reconstruction in Europe, immigration and resettlement in Palestine and integration of refugees into the life of the United States.

Milton S. Lew, chairman of the local campaign, said today that the appeal represents the greatest effort in the history of the American Jews to relieve distress abroad to provide new immigration opportunities in Palestine. "The lives of many hundreds of thousands of persecuted men, women and children depend upon our success in this drive," he reported to his campaign workers.

Appeal to All Creeds

Chairman Lew explained that the appeal will be made to all creeds and races because the agents of terror and hatred now aroused in Europe are levied against all religions in general. Once unleashed these powers cannot easily be stopped.

"Intolerance," Lew stated, "is as anti-Christian as it is anti-Jewish. The fiction of racial superiority is so alien to our American traditions that we cannot understand the callousness of many European nations toward the helpless victims. I feel that Americans of all creeds can join to prove to the world once more that while American democracy lives, humanity and compassion shall not die."

6,000,000 Helpless

Lew pointed out that there are six million Jews in Europe today fighting desperately against intolerance and despair. For them the support of the united appeal is crucial, he said.

DR. WEIZMAN STRESSES JEWS NEED OF NORMAL NATIONAL LIFE

Jews Reject Minority Status in Palestine

LONDON, Monday (Palestine).—In his opening address at the talks on Palestine in St. James's Palace last Wednesday evening, (which has now been officially released for publication) the President of the Jewish Agency, Dr. Chaim Weizman, declared that the Jewish representatives had entered upon the discussions in the desire to be helpful and with full recognition of the difficulties facing the British Government.

They must, however, safeguard the vital interests and rights of the Jewish people which could not be surrendered, particularly in this blackest hour of Jewish history. He referred to his survey before the Royal Commission in Jerusalem in November, 1936, indicating that the root of the problem lay in the homelessness of the Jewish people who were everywhere a minority.

The Jewish people had preserved their identity because of their attachment to Palestine and the hope of the return to Zion. They claimed that Palestine had never been abandoned, and the Jewish community there had never ceased to exist; in every age Jewish groups had gone to Palestine, and during the last 60 years active re-settlement had been going on.

HISTORIC RECOGNITION

The Balfour Declaration, the Zionist President proceeded, had recognised these historic facts; and in the preamble to the Mandate, international recognition was "given the historical connection between the Jewish people and Palestine, and the grounds for reconstituting their National Home in that country."

Reviewing developments since the Royal Commission, Dr. Weizman referred to the fact that the members of that Commission, which had consisted of men in the front rank of British public life, had after long and careful enquiries found that when issuing the Balfour Declaration the British Government had realised that, given the necessary zeal and enterprise by the Jews, a Jewish State in the course of time would be established in Palestine.

The Royal Commission had proposed a Jewish State in part of Palestine, a plan which was adopted by the Government and caused heart-searching among the Jewish people. But, although they did not regard the original promise as fulfilled, the Jews agreed to explore the possibility of cooperating with the Government on this basis because the principle of the Report, acknowledged by the Government, was that the creation of a Jewish State "would secure the establishment of a Jewish National Home and relieve it of the possibility of being subjected in the future to Arab rule. It would convert the Jewish National Home into a Jewish State with full control of immigration."

These two main principles, Dr. Weizman submitted, retain their binding and moral force.

He went on to say, "The Royal Commission's report outlawed artificial restrictions on Jewish immigration and the relegation of the Jewish community to minority status. It is inconceivable that, after 20 years, the British Government should be seeking an interpretation of the Mandate which would curtail fundamental Jewish rights. Such a departure from the moral position would shake the British Empire to its foundations, for the bonds riveting it together are purely moral, composed of natural faith and belief in the security of promises."

But a new period of vacillation ensued, resulting in the Woodhead Commission's Report, and the idea of a Jewish State was abandoned. The one thing that remained was the political high level imposed on Jewish immigration.

At a time of supreme distress to Central European Jewry, and when the Jewish tragedy was spreading to other countries, the gates of the National Home were almost shut to Jewish refugees. The fate of six million people was in the balance; they knew not whether to go.

The Jews had been told that the Balfour Declaration and the Palestine Mandate had not contemplated large-scale immigration. Even historically that statement was inaccurate. There had been intense Jewish suffering and persecution in Russia in pre-war days, and hundreds of thousands of Jews had emigrated annually. Jewish distress was always one of the two foundations of the Zionist Movement, the other being the need of the Jews for a normal national life of their own in their historical home.

Settling Down to Fundamentals

GOVERNMENT TACTICS AT LONDON CONFERENCES

By GERSHON AGRONSKY

LONDON, Monday. — In what Dr. Weizman, in his speech on Wednesday which was officially released tonight, described as the darkest hour in the history of the Jewish people, the British delegation, in its negotiations with both the Jewish and the Arab representatives, is now settling down to the consideration of fundamentals.

The Arabs are evidently persisting in their effort to prove that the MacMahon pledge included a promise of independence for the Palestine Arabs. This case was argued on Saturday and again today by Nuri Pasha es Said and will be continued tomorrow by the Princes of Saudi Arabia and Yemen, still centering on this point, which Mr. R. A. Butler is expected to clear up from the point of view of the Government.

It is also apparent that the Government delegates pursue the strategy of wearing down whichever delegation happens to be facing them, by presenting the Jewish arguments to the Arabs, and vice versa. It is difficult to predict what the Arabs hope to gain by scoring a dialectic victory in the MacMahon controversy, except perhaps to underline the alleged conflict of rights, but the argumentation against the background of St. James's Palace, with its hallowed tradition and its crimson carpets and cushions, is punctuated by the unceasing murders on the Palestine front itself. The Arab delegates would appear to be endeavouring to demonstrate the rights of their claims by appalling wrongs, such as the weekend casualty toll which is tucked away in remote columns in today's London newspapers.

ARABS' "RIGHTS"

The Jews acquiesced to the talks, although they expected no benefits to result from them; they are now forced to defend their rights, which were guaranteed by the entire civilised world, against the so-called natural rights of the Arabs.

It was essential, the statement continued, that there should be one place in the world where the Jews would not be an adjunct, but masters of their own destinies. Various well-intentioned projects were now being sponsored to find a territorial base in other countries for the Jews, but no other undeveloped country can give immediate relief to large numbers of refugees, and a long period of experiment was required in any new country.

The signal success of Palestine was due to the national and religious fervour behind the endeavours which could not be evoked in other countries. Moreover, Palestine had been prepared by 40 years of pioneering work and was now capable of taking in hundreds of thousands of refugees. If Palestine was unable to absorb all Jews in search of a refuge, that was hardly a logical reason for saying that it must take less than it can take.

Dr. Weizman pointed out that Jewish work had not stood still even under the difficulties of the past three years. In spite of the danger, Jews had come to Palestine and parents had sent their children. He also referred to the degree of defence which the Jews had been able to render for their own settlements and also in helping the British military forces.

CONFLICTING PROMISES

Referring to the alleged conflicting promises made to the Jews and the Arabs, Dr. Weizman pointed out that there was no conflict concerning Western Palestine, as had been acknowledged by representatives of the British Government and by Sir Henry MacMahon himself. The late Colonel T. E. Lawrence had also recorded that Mr. Winston Churchill's settlement in 1921/22 had fulfilled all the British promises towards the Arabs.

Lastly, the late King Feisal, the authorised spokesman of the Arabs at the Peace Conference in Paris, had accepted the Balfour Declaration.

Where there was a possibility of a conflict between the promises in respect of Trans-Jordan, this was solved 100 per cent in favour of the Arabs. The Arabs had emerged from the last War with four Kingdoms. Their statehood came easily through the expenditure of British blood and effort. As the Royal Commission had pointed out, so far as the Balfour Declaration had contributed to the victory of the Allied Powers, it had also contributed to the liberation of the Arabs.

"It is relevant to compare," he declared, "what the Arabs have made of the extraordinary opportunities given them with little trouble, and what the Jews made of the chances offered them. Vast Arab territories stand empty today — an invitation to powerful and unscrupulous Powers."

DIFFERENT APPROACHES

Dr. Weizman emphasized the difference in the importance of Palestine to the Jews and to the Arabs, quoting the report of the League's Permanent Mandates Commission as follows:

The collective suffering of the Arabs and Jews cannot be compared, since vast spaces in the Near East, formerly the abode of a numerous population and the home of a brilliant civilisation, were open to the former; whereas the world was being increasingly closed to the settlement of the latter."

As for the Arab claim that Palestine was an Arab country and must have an Arab Government, even the present basis of the claim could not be realised, as the Jews formed a third of the population and were responsible for more than two-thirds of the economic and cultural activities in Palestine.

NON-DOMINATION

The Jews did not want to dominate the Arabs, he said, but they would not allow themselves to be dominated by them, and they would not submit to the same fate as the Assyrians of Iraq.

The gist of Dr. Weizman's statement was a demand for the continuation of

REVIEW OF EVENTS

It is as yet too early today to comprehend the full extent of the tragedy which has overtaken the world. The conflict has but started. It is now still limited to four countries. The extent of its possible spread is not as yet known. But the tragedy which has overtaken the millions of people in the war zone as well as the 3,500,000 Jews in Poland and the 800,000 Jews in Germany and her possessions is sufficiently great to defy the imagination and stir the deep sympathy of those who still be-

East and Central Europe. Other warnings of the same dire character have been uttered by Nazi officials and publications for the past several years.

Today, two-thirds of the Jewish population in Poland is under Nazi occupation. Even the infrequent dispatches from the war front indicate that the Jews were the twofold victim of Nazi hatred and retaliation, first as citizens of Poland, and secondly, as Jews. The Nazi propaganda machinery is feverishly at work in an effort to drive a wedge between the Jews and the Poles. In line with its set policy, pursued before the hostilities commenced, Nazi propaganda attempts to convince the Poles that their enemy is the Jew and not the Nazi aggressor. At the same time, an effort is made to portray the Polish civilian resistance as stemming mainly from Jews, in order to justify wanton retaliation and goad the German soldiers and civilian population to more frightful acts. Frequent bombardments of Polish towns have been directed in many cases at the Jewish quarters. Polish Jews knew that their very existence is at stake in this war. For the part of Poland, occupied by the Nazis, there may be a puppet government, Slovak style, pending a change in fortune. For Jews there is but death, exile and persecution. Nor is there any escape for them. If the pattern established by the U.S.S.R. will be followed in the regions occupied by the Russian forces, Jews in these localities will face persecution for their religious beliefs, Zionist activities and democratic sympathies.

As was not the case in the last war, in which the Jews of Germany shed blood for the glory of the grateful "Vaterland," they are held there today as hostages to become again the scapegoats in the event of the defeat of the Nazi forces.

The problem of Palestine has attained a new complexion against the background of the new world situation. It continued to loom large until the outbreak of hostilities. It was evident from the utterances and actions of the Colonial Minister, Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, that the British Government was determined to put into effect the measures outlined in the White Paper, and to break the resistance of the Jewish community. This was reflected in the suspension of Jewish immigration into Palestine during the six months beginning October 1, 1939, as a retaliation for the continuous stream of "illegal" immigration of German and other refugees. Jews were heartened by the publication of the report of the League of Nations Permanent Mandates Commission, four of whose seven members declared the White Paper an unmistakable violation of the terms of the Mandate. In the meantime, attention was shifted to Geneva where the Twenty-First Biennial World Zionist Congress was opened on August 16.

The Congress met under the threatening clouds of war, a circumstance which influenced both the procedure and the tenor of the addresses and discussions. Because of the emergency situation in Zionism, elections were not held in a number of countries. The labor group was strongly represented as usual, and its coalition with the liberal General Zionists (Group A) still dominated the scene in spite of minor disagreements. The major differences which transcended all group lines ranged about the type of resistance to be undertaken against the British policy. While the Congress went on record as unanimously opposed to any compromise in Palestine at the expense of Jewish rights.

The following article is an excerpt from "Let My People Go," a pamphlet written on Christmas Day, 1942, in London. While it is addressed to Englishmen, its message applies to Americans as well.

Of the six million Jews or so who were living at the outbreak of the war in what is at present Nazi-occupied Europe, a high proportion—between one and two million—have been deliberately murdered by the Nazis and their satellites.

No discrimination has been made in favor of pregnant women, babies, children, the sick, or the very old. On the contrary, discrimination, such as it is, has been in favor of men from whom an adequate last ounce can be got in German war factories.

The murders have taken the form of random shootings, mass shootings, mass electrocutions, mass poison-gassing, and transportation in conditions which inevitably involve death during the journey. This is over and above slow starvation by the allotment of hopelessly inadequate rations, or no rations at all.

This treatment has been carried out with the greatest conceivable inhumanity, and has involved the maximum of hopelessness and despair. In particular, helpless children have had to face the fear of a torturing death without the strengthening sympathy of their parents. In particular, helpless children have had to face the fear of a torturing death without the strengthening sympathy of their parents, and their parents have had to know that they were doing so. All this is part, not of war, but of a quite deliberate policy, openly proclaimed, of exterminating the Jewish population of Europe.

This policy, which has been pursued since the outbreak of the war, has been greatly speeded up during the last few months. It is now reaching its climax. Unless something effective is done, within a very few months these six million Jews will all be dead, except the fifty thousand or so in the countries at present neutral, and perhaps a few tens of thousands whom Hitler may find it convenient to work to the last ounce of their strength in his own war the moral sense of civilized men and made them callous to human misery. Perhaps the roar of gigantic battles had drowned out the sound of helpless voices behind the ghetto walls. But whatever the reason, the fact remains that the Jewish tragedy in Europe was passed over as just another "episode" in a global war.

Suddenly, during the summer of 1942, world public opinion was shocked out of its lethargy by the realization that the Nazis had decreed the complete extinction of six million Jews and that a third of the victims had already perished. The response to this deliberate savagery was a mighty outcry of protest, indignation and mourning on the part of Jews and non-Jews, governments and social agencies, churches and the press in all free countries. Eleven United Nations, among them the United States, Great Britain and Soviet Russia condemned "in the strongest possible terms the bestial policy of cold-blooded extermination."

In countries throughout the world Jews observed a day of mourning by fasting and praying. Heads of the Christian religion, both Catholic and Protestant, appealed to world conscience to rise in sympathy with the martyred Jews. Labor in many countries halted work, and decent people everywhere, in one way or another, called for retribution, justice and restoration of Jewish rights after victory. This demonstration of human sympathy in the midst of a global war was an act of striking historic significance.

Six Million Jews Listed Slaughtered

Russians to Detail Massacres by Nazis

MOSCOW, Nov 28 (UPI)—A five-volume “black book” containing a documentary record of the German massacre of approximately six million European Jews was being prepared today by the State Publishing House.

The first volume has been completed and will be distributed before Jan. 1.

The work was under the general editorship of Ilya Ehrenburg and the editorial board included Post-Playwright Konstantin Simonov, Writer Vsevolod Ivanov and Poetess Vera Inber.

Four Categories

The “black book” will contain four categories: German decrees and orders of the day; eye-witness accounts of survivors of murder camps; diaries and letters of the victims; and accounts by non-Jews who aided in the escape of certain prisoners.

The “black book” will show that systematic annihilation of the Jews began in 1933 and was carried out in eight principal places with death methods including gas chamber, starvation, electrocution, firing squads, bacterial inoculation and with carbon monoxide chambers.

Catholics Also Killed

One of the largest camps was operated near Warsaw where a majority of Polish Jews and many Polish Catholics were killed, the black book editors said.

Of Poland’s pre-war Jewish population of 3,300,000, about 250,000 were known to be in Russia. All of the others, who had been under German rule, were killed with the exception of 2000 escapees, the editors estimated.

Among letters left behind by victims was from a woman and a girl addressed to their husband and father, “M. Whitner, 186 Central Ave., Orange, N. J.”

“They’re coming to murder us,” the wife wrote. “The only thing you can do is to avenge us.”

The little daughter scribbled: “I want to live. I am afraid to die.”

SIX MILLIONS MURDERED

MOSCOW, Monday (UP). — The Soviet State Publishing House is preparing the publication of another “Black Book,” a documentary record of the German massacre of approximately six million European Jews.

The first volume will appear before the end of the year, under the editorship of the well-known author, Ilya Ehrenburg. The record will contain four categories of documents:

- (1) Data on the actual murders;
- (2) Eye-witness accounts by survivors of murders in camps;
- (3) The diaries and letters of victims;
- (4) Accounts of non-Jews who aided prisoners to escape.

According to the Soviet editors, the Germans killed between five and six million Russian, Polish and Western European Jews, and an additional half million are being murdered in Hungary now.

Prints Volume On Atrocities Against Jews

Moscow Publishing House Completes First Book on Nazi Murders

By Henry Shapiro
(Trans. from Russ. by Robert Moscow, Nov. 27)—A five-volume “black book” containing a documentary record of the German massacre of approximately 6,000,000 European Jews is being prepared by the state publishing house.

The first volume has been completed and will be distributed before Jan. 1.

The work was under the general editorship of Ilya Ehrenburg and the editorial board included post-playwright Konstantin Simonov, writer Vsevolod Ivanov, and poetess Vera Inber.

To Contain Four Categories

The “black book” will contain four categories: German decrees and orders of the day; eyewitness accounts of survivors of murder camps; diaries and letters of the victims; and accounts by non-Jews who aided in the escape of certain prisoners.

Data available to the editors indicated that between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 Russian, Polish, and western Europe Jews were killed and an additional half million Jews from probable death in Hungary now.

The “black book” will show that systematic annihilation of the Jews began in 1933 and was carried out in eight principal places with death methods including gas chamber, starvation, electrocution, firing squads, bacterial inoculation, and with carbon monoxide chambers.

One of the largest camps was operated near Warsaw where a majority of Polish Jews and many Polish Catholics were killed, the black book editors said.

Of Poland’s pre-war Jewish population of 3,300,000, about 250,000 were known to be in Russia. All of the others, who had been under German rule, were killed with the exception of 2,000 escapees, the editors estimated.

In many of the reenclosed areas, the Russians found secret records listing the names and origins of victims along with identification certificates, passports, and photographs.

Among letters left behind by victims, one correspondent gave one from a woman and a girl addressed to their husband and father, “M. Whitner, 186 Central Ave., Orange, N. J.”

“They’re coming to murder us,” the wife wrote. “The only thing you can do is to avenge us.”

Signatures on the tea-stained letter were illegible.

JEWISH RALLY URGES GAS ATTACKS ON NAZIS

Immediate action for the rescue of the surviving Jews in Europe, including the use of poison gas against Germany, was demanded at a "rebirth of a nation" rally in Town Hall last night under the auspices of the American League for a Free Palestine.

Peter H. Bergson, chairman of the Hebrew Committee of National Liberation, which seeks recognition of a Jewish nation as an ally of the United Nations, with representation on the various Allied councils, was the principal speaker.

Referring to repeated warnings by Prime Minister Winston Churchill and President Roosevelt that poison gas will be used against Germany if the Nazis use it against any member of the United Nations, Mr. Bergson pointed out that a million Jews had been reported killed by poison gas in Nazi concentration camps.

"Since poison gas has been used against the co-belligerent Hebrew nation, we of the Hebrew Committee of National Liberation publicly demand of the American and British Governments that unless this practice ceases poison gas be used against Germany," he declared.

The Jewish population in Europe has been reduced from 9,500,000 in 1939 to 3,500,000, it was estimated yesterday by Jacob Lestchinsky, exiled economist and newspaper man, in an address at the nineteenth annual conference of the Yiddish Scientific Institute. Mr. Lestchinsky, who is research secretary of the institute, spoke at the closing sessions of a three-day conference at the Hotel Park Central and attended by delegates from Jewish educational and cultural groups.

"Of the 6,000,000 European Jews who have died, 5,000,000 had lived in the countries under Hitler's occupation," he said.

Other speakers included Dr. Harry M. Orlinsky, Professor of Zająłoby LATA zanim dokładne oszacowanie, ilu ludzi wszystkich narodowości zginęło w czasie wojny, można było obliczyć, nie mówiąc już o jednej konkretnej grupie etnicznej. I nawet po latach śledztwa nadal byłby to tylko szacunek. Samo to mówi, że to kompletnie bzdurna liczba.

Ilya Erenburg, notoryczny żydowski propagandzista w Związku Sowieckim, który agitował za ludobójstwem Niemców i podlegał do masowych gwałtów niemieckich kobiet przez żołnierzy z Armii Czerwonej, przedwcześnie ogłosił, że “teraz świat wie o tym, że Niemcy zabiły 6 mln Żydów”, zanim ktokolwiek mógł znać ich liczbę.

But while the pros and cons of the various solutions propounded have been argued, the political and strategic aspects have been neglected. The danger of the desperate plight of the Jewish survivors in Europe and the crucial importance of the Palestine question—subjects to which Miss Elsom's Righteousness drew special attention—are facts to be overlooked. It is fair to expect Jews to relieve their distressed lives among the transients of their fellow? Unhappy and homeless, who are liberated or conquered Europe are they test cases? It is not doubly incumbent on us to spare to ourselves and Jews alike the possibility of further suffering and die among the liberated Jews of Europe, if it can be avoided, by swift action? There is a further practical consideration, that alone the number of refugees and displaced persons in Europe is proving an almost insurmountable problem. BERN, May 12 — At least one point in Adolf Hitler's "Mein Kampf" program has been carried out thoroughly — the bestial extermination of European Jews.

Of the eight million Jews living in Germany and German occupied countries before the war, 6,200,000 have died from either execution, cruel treatment or starvation, according to latest figures compiled by Jewish welfare organizations here.

500,000 Left in Reich

In Germany, where the great majority of European Jews had been concentrated, only 500,000 are alive today—and the word "alive" is a mere figure of speech. Now that the story of their suffering can be told without harming the survivors, it may be pointed out that the martyrdom of Europe's Jews ran through three phases.

The first was the period of "extermination" proper from the time of the declaration of war on Russia until the end of 1942. Millions of Jews were taken to the camps at Auschwitz, Maidanek and Treblinka which boasted the most modern gas execution chambers and crematories for bodies. The SS hordes invading Russia were instructed to shoot all Russian Jews wherever they were encountered.

The Weak Disappear

By the end of 1942, however, Germany felt the need for foreign labor and the remaining able-bodied Jews were sent to work camps. The women, old men and children all disappeared into the gas chambers.

The slavery of the able-bodied and the execution of the frail continued until the beginning of 1944, by which time the Nazis had reached the saturation point of their cruelty. More than five million Jews had been liquidated and the remaining ones were no longer regarded as a "problem," as Hitler saw it.

In addition were the transport difficulties making human ship-

In traveling about conquered Germany—a country that seems to be populated mostly by old men, women and children—one wonders at first who was left at home to till the fields and work in the factories. But the answer is provided by the seemingly endless streams of former “slaves” from all parts of Europe and by the huge cantonments of liberated victims of Nazism. More than six million of them have been liberated, and that is just about the number of her own men that it is estimated Hitler’s “intuition” cost his nation in killed, wounded and captured.

Hold Yom Kippur Services Friday And Saturday

Yom Kippur services will be conducted Friday and Saturday in the Beth Jacob Synagogue, with Rabbi David Berent and the choir officiating. The following is the schedule of the services: Kol Nidre—Friday evening, 8 o'clock; Shachris—Saturday morning, 8 o'clock; Torah reading, 9:45 A. M.; Memorial services, 10:30; sermon, 11:00; Musaf service, 11:30; Mincha, 3 P. M.; N'ilah service, 4 P. M.; and Sounding of Shofar 5:30.

Topics of the Kol-Nidre sermon will be "Five Letters of Repentance," and the Yizkor, "The Living and the Dead." Junior services will be conducted in the vestry, Kol-Nidre at 5:30 and Yom Kippur at 10 o'clock.

A special memorial service will be conducted for members of the congregation who gave their lives in the war, and in conjunction with this, a service will be held memorializing the six million Jews who died in Europe.

Jews everywhere will observe the Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement, from sundown Friday until sundown the following day. It is the most sacred and solemn day in the Jewish year, and as such, will be observed with special prayers and rituals. Unlike other Jewish holidays, the Day of Atonement has no historical background. It is a day given over to introspection and contemplation. On the New Year, the Book of Life was opened. On the Day of Atonement, the Book is sealed. And before it is closed, Jews everywhere will fast and pray in order that they may be written down for a good life.

The Day of Atonement represents man's striving for a more perfect world, a world in which there will be no wrong-doing or evil-thinking.

take advantage, at a time when Hitler was most anxious to keep the whole of eastern Europe quiet until his preparations against the U.S.S.R. were complete. The situation was made worse by the total failure of the invasion of Greece and by the rapid retreat of the Italians in North Africa before Sir Archibald Wavell's advance (Dec. 1940). Hitler was obliged to come to the aid of his axis partner. He sent German reinforcements to North Africa (where Erwin Rommel succeeded in driving the British back in the spring of 1941), and he took steps in readiness for a German invasion of Greece. Hungary and Rumania had already been reduced to the status of German satellites and made no difficulties about the movement of German troops toward the Greek frontiers; nor did Bulgaria, where, after a sharp diplomatic contest with the Russians the Germans proceeded to occupy key positions throughout the country in March. The remaining Balkan country, Yugoslavia, was induced under pressure to accede to the tripartite pact in March 1941, but the Yugoslav government was overthrown by a palace revolution in the name of the young king Peter. Thereupon Hitler ordered drastic measures to make an example of Yugoslavia. In the course of April 1941 German forces invaded both Yugoslavia and Greece, the former operation being accompanied by brutal air attacks on the defenseless city of Belgrade. By the end of the month both countries had been occupied, and in the last half of May German parachute troops completed the Balkan campaign by the capture of Crete.

Invasion of the Soviet Union.—With the occupation of Crete and Rommel's success in driving back the British to the Egyptian frontier, Raeder and others urged that the situation was ripe for a decisive blow against the whole British position in the middle east. But Hitler was set upon attacking the U.S.S.R. and insisted that all other operations must be postponed until it had been defeated, a task which he confidently expected to accomplish within six or eight weeks.

The invasion began on June 22, 1941, and in the opening stages of the campaign the German army drove deep into Soviet territory. Despite imposing successes, however, the Germans failed to achieve a decisive victory and by dispersing his forces Hitler left the frontal assault on the Soviet armies defending Moscow until late in the year. At the beginning of Dec. 1941, the onset of the dreaded Russian winter and the unexpected Soviet counter-offensive faced the German high command with a major military crisis. This brought to a head the strained relations between Hitler and the army leaders. Since the reluctance of the high command to undertake offensive operations in the west in the winter of 1939-40, Hitler had become increasingly critical of the generals, and was less and less prepared to listen to their advice. In Dec. 1941 he dismissed Gen. Walther von Brauchitsch, the commander in chief of the German army, and assumed the direct command of the armies in the field himself. The fact that by drastic measures he succeeded in holding the Soviet attacks during the winter greatly increased his confidence in his own military genius. Henceforward he refused to listen to any views, or even information, which ran counter to his own conception of how the war should be conducted.

Germany Declares War on the United States.—The Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in Dec. 1941 now extended the war to the whole world. Hitler promptly declared war on the United States, whose resources he underestimated as grossly as those of the U.S.S.R. He failed however to grasp the unity of the war or the importance of seapower and in his growing preoccupation with abilities at an earlier stage.

Hitler had shown an equal blindness to the importance of the Mediterranean theatre of operations. At the close of 1942, the advance of the British 8th army from the east and the joint Anglo-U.S. landings in northwest Africa were driving the German and Italian forces under Rommel into a trap. Hitler now hurriedly made available the reinforcements he had earlier refused, but without being able to halt the Allies' advance; the only result was to increase the size of the forces captured in Tunisia, where more than 250,000 German and Italian troops surrendered in May 1943.

Meanwhile, in the east, ignoring the warnings of his professional advisers, Hitler had embarked on still more ambitious operations for the campaign of 1942, aiming at the occupation of the Caucasus oil fields in the south and a drive to the Volga in the south-east. The invasion of the Caucasus fell short of its objective, while the drive to the Volga turned into a desperate contest for the city of Stalingrad, where Hitler's obstinate refusal to withdraw in time led to the encirclement and capitulation of the German armies under Field Marshal Friedrich von Paulus at the end of Jan. 1943.

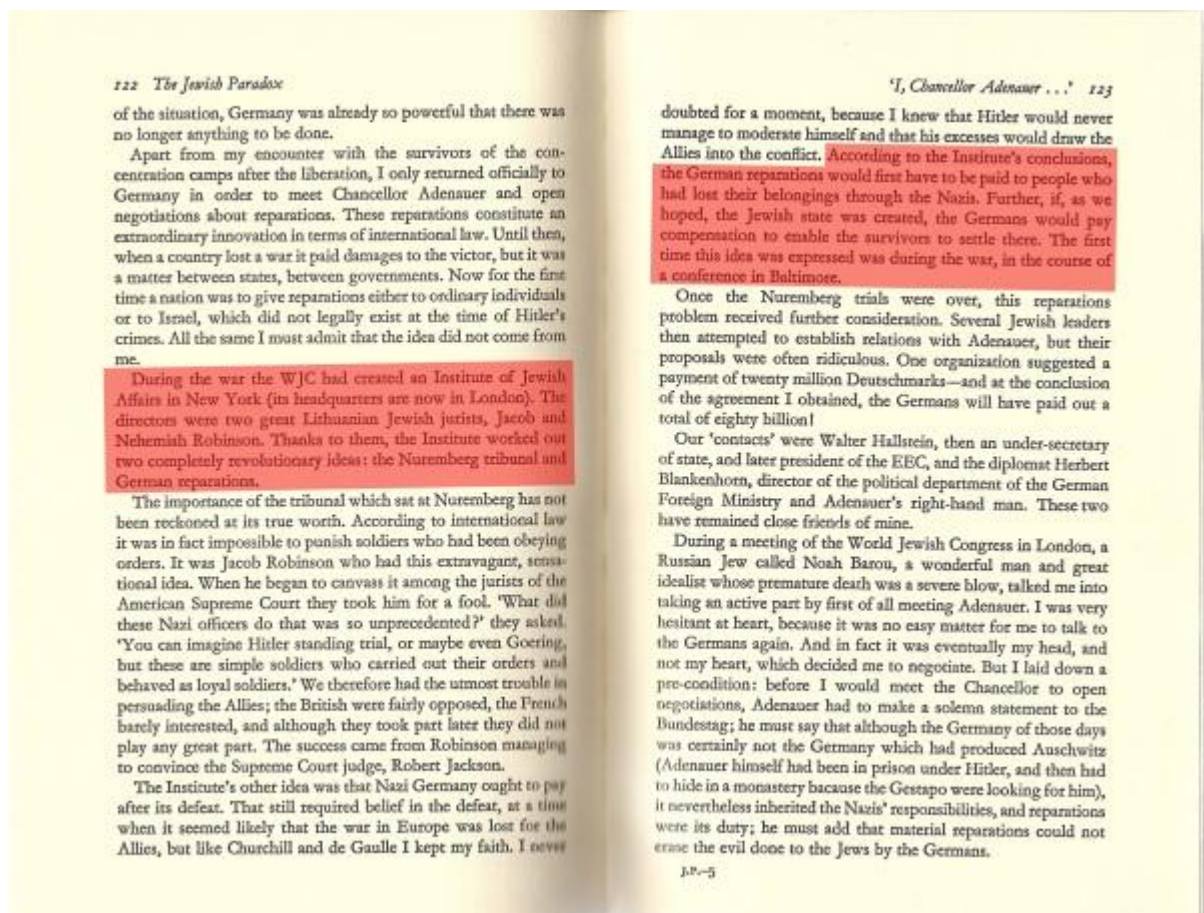

The double defeat of Stalingrad and Tunisia represented the turning point of the war. By mid-1943, Hitler had lost the initiative and from that time the German forces everywhere stood on the defensive.

The Nazi Empire.—At the height of his success, Hitler was the master of the greater part of the European continent. German rule in the east was extended to wide areas of the Baltic states, Byelorussia, the Ukraine and European Russia; Poland (part of which was annexed, the rest organized as the government-general) and the protectorate of Bohemia-Moravia; Serbia and Greece (where the occupation was shared with the Italians); and the nominally independent, satellite states of Slovakia, Croatia, Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria. In the west, Norway, Denmark, the Netherlands, Belgium and France were all under German occupation, part of France from the summer of 1940 and the whole country from Nov. 1942.

German economic exploitation of these territories was ruthless. The needs of the native population were subordinated to the demands of the German economy, often at the cost of widespread hunger and shortages, while German industrial and business firms as well as officials made the most of the advantages the situation offered. In eastern Europe German policy treated the population not only as conquered peoples, but in accordance with Nazi teaching, as inferior races without rights, fit only to serve as slaves. Those classes of the population which on account of their education or position might be expected to provide leadership, together with the Jews and any who showed signs of resistance, were put to death. At Mauthausen, one of the extermination camps in Austria, close to 2,000,000 people, mostly Jews, were exterminated between 1941 and 1945; at Oswiecim (Auschwitz) in Poland, 2,500,000 were executed in the gas chambers, while another 500,000 died from starvation and disease. Frequent man hunts were carried out to round up labour for deportation to Germany; at the end of 1944, 4,795,000 foreign workers had been recruited in this way, the three largest groups being Russians (1,900,000), Poles (851,000) and French (784,000). Those from the east were treated entirely as slave labour and the conditions under which they lived were often appalling. Hitler's and Himmler's plans for the new order they meant to build in eastern Europe were only Encyklopedia pisze: “W Mauthausen, jednym z obozów eksterminacyjnych w Austrii, zabito prawie 2 mln ludzi, w większości Żydów, w latach 1941-1945”. Uważa, że było to tylko w 99% kłamstwo. Jak na nich całkiem szczere.

1976-Wpływowy przywódca syjonistyczny Nahum Goldmann, współzałożyciel i wieloletni szef Światowego Kongresu Żydów, publikuje książkę o Żydach, The Jewish Paradox [Żydowski paradoks]. Na s. 122 i 123 szczerze przyznaje, że w latach przed zakończeniem II wojny światowej, dwaj wpływowi współ-spiskujący Żydzi wpadli na pomysł zorganizowania pokazowego powojennego trybunału norymberskiego i wypłacania Żydom “niemieckich odszkodowań”. Goldmann opisuje jak on wraz z dwoma oszukańczymi kumplami syjonistycznymi ze Światowego Kongresu Żydów, planowali wykorzystać po wojnie odszkodowania na sfinansowanie żydowskiego osadnictwa w Palestynie. Goldmann przyznaje się do szwindlu

1990-Alianckie Procesy Norymberskie oskarżyły nazistów o mord 4 mln ludzi w Auschwitz. Liczba ta figurowała na tablicach dla turystów odwiedzających Auschwitz, i powtarzały ją jako “fakt” rządy, historycy, dziennikarze, politycy i autorytety przez 45 lat. W 1990 roku wszystko to zdemaskowano jako wielkie kłamstwo, kiedy Muzeum w Auschwitz oficjalnie zmniejszyło liczbę zgonów z 4 mln na 1,1 mln, z czego, jak stwierdzono, 960.000 było Żydami. (source)

Liczba zgonów w Auschwitz zredukowana do miliona, ale święta liczba “6 mln” pozostaje niezmienna i nadal jest powtarzana przez Żydów.

Oficjalne tablice usunięto i zamieniono nowymi, z “nową” sfałszowaną liczbą 1,5 mln. To co najmniej 2,5 mln osób usuniętych z oficjalnej liczby zgonów w ciągu doby. Nie mogą nawet zdecydować się jaka powinna być ta liczba. Powinni powiedzieć od razu, że ją zmyślają na poczekaniu.

Proces Norymberski oskarżył nazistów o mord 1,5 mln ludzi w Majdanku, obozie na terenie Polski. Tę śmieszną liczbę wymyślił Saul Hayes, kanadyjski dziennikarz na liście płac kanadyjskich organizacji syjonistycznej, Kanadyjskiego Kongresu Żydów. Obecnie mówi się oficjalnie, że zginęło tam tylko 79.000 osób. Przesadzono o 1.421.000!

Pomimo znacznej redukcji w oficjalnej liczbie zgonów w Mauthausen, Auschwitz i Majdanek, to mitycznej i oczywiście fałszywej liczby “6 mln” nigdy nie poprawiono, i nadal uznają ją syjonistyczni Żydzi na całym świecie. To dlatego, że ma ona religijne znaczenie dla Żydów i spełnia ich urojone starożytne proroctwa Tory. Holocaust™ to nic więcej niż religia wszczepiana “Gojom”.

Również w roku 1990 obalono inny holomit, to nedorzeczne kłamstwo o tym, że ze skóry Żydów naziści robili “abażury”, a z ich tłuszczu “ludzkie mydło”.

Żydowskie grupy w Izraelu przyznały, że ta rozpowszechniona plotka była tylko mitem.

W roku 1990 mit o “mydle i abażurach” w końcu zostaje obalony.

Pomimo tego przyznania się, nadal są Żydzi, którzy twierdzą, że to fakt.

Dwoje syjonistycznych promotorów holokaustu, Deborah Lipstadt i prof. Peter Novick, stwierdzili w swoich książkach, że Szymon Wizenthal, niesławny “łowca nazistów” i patologiczny kłamca, otwarcie wymyślił “5 mln nie-żydowskich zgonów”, które rzekomo miały miejsce podczas holokaustu, jako chwyt marketingowy w celu zainteresowania nie-Żydów religią holokaustu, także znanej pod nazwą “holo-chrześcijaństwa”.

Rewizjoniści szacują, że całkowita liczba zgonów w niemieckich obozach koncentracyjnych wyniosła około 300.000 – 500.000. W tej liczbie prawie połowę stanowili Żydzi. Odwrotnie do komicznych i zdyskredytowanych “6 mln”, liczba ta opiera się na solidnej dokumentacji, łącznie z raportami opublikowanymi przez Międzynarodowy Czerwony Krzyż, który dokonywał inspekcji obozów, rejestrów zgonów z Auschwitz ujawnionych przez sowieckie archiwa w 1990 roku, w których zanotowano tylko 69.000 zgonów w Auschwitz, oraz innych dokumentów. Główną przyczyną zgonów była epidemia tyfusu i głód. [tutaj Auschwitz death registries ]

Po dziesiątkach lat starannych śledztw, analiz naukowych i intensywnych badań, naukowcy rewizjoniści zlokalizowali “komory gazowe”, “komory parowe”, “taśmociągi porażające prądem”, “pomieszczenia duszące”, “urządzenia [na pedały] miażdżące mózg”, “proszek z kości szczękowych Żydów wykorzystywany w budowie”, i inne dziwolągi w sferze science

Memory of Holocaust central to new world order Unchallenged, racism has the capacity to undercut civilization's basic values and to destroy democracy

Abstract (Document Summary)

Resistance to a productive contemplation of the Holocaust is apparent elsewhere in Europe. War-time Poland was a virtual death factory for millions of Jews. Only eyes blinded by anti-Semitism could have failed to notice the fact of so many "missing" neighbors. Yet can one speak of a coming to terms with the Holocaust?

So, it is no surprise that Holocaust revisionist David Irving continues to find audiences in Canada, nor surprising that Holocaust denial figures prominently in the activities for which Ernst Zundel, John Ross Taylor, Jim Keegstra, Donald Andrews and Robert Smith were brought before our country's courts and Malcolm Ross before a human rights tribunal.

The Holocaust stands as Western civilization's greatest failure. It was a natural outcome of centuries of racism and of anti-Semitism. To deny the Holocaust is to deny racism's capacity to undercut our civilization's basic values and to destroy democracy. Achieving our quest of a "new world order" depends on our learning the Holocaust's lessons.

This is the cry that comes from the Jews of Europe to the Jews of America

"Make them understand that we are dying! Make them understand that a whole people is dying!

*Dying for lack of food!
Dying for lack of medical help!
Dying for lack of shelter!*

"Make them understand that hundreds upon hun-and the suffering of their loved ones has made life unbearable.

"Make them understand that millions of Jews are trapped in Europe and there is no hope except the Jews of America help.

"We solemnly declare to the Jews of America that never in the history of the Jewish people, dating back for centuries, was there a situation like this, and never before in the history of the Jewish people was there any emergency as great as this.

"Time and again the Jews of America have saved us from death. And now, from the depths of our despair, we plead with you again to help us quickly or we perish."

Extract from a letter received from one of the lead-

Jewish Suffering and Armenians
 To the Editor of The Tribune.
 Sir: Reading your editorial of the 6 "Armenia," in which you rightfully scold the Turks for the execution of Armenians, I wish to ask you what about Russia?
 What the Turks are doing to Armenians is child's play compared to what Russia is doing to six million Jews, her own subjects. This at a time when about half a million Jewish soldiers are fighting for the Czar, many of whom have been decorated, and shows their faithfulness. When the wounded return home, cripples for the rest of their lives, they find their homes gone, wrecked, by an outside enemy but by the very government they served, their parents killed or exiled, their wives and sisters dishonored, their children starved and wandering.
 Such things happened to tens of thousands in Russia is doing it to-day, and yet there is outcry from the American press. It was the Ambassador to Turkey (by the way, himself a Jew) who protested against these massacres of Armenians. Was there any such protest from the American Ambassador in Petrograd?
 You may blame Germany for what the Turks are doing. Can you also blame England or France for what Russia is doing? It is also said that Russia is fighting for civilization. . . . I am not pro-German, as I am against militarism, but if that is the kind of civilization Russia is fighting for, then go me "German Kultur." I always thought the Tribune on the square, and hope you will enlighten me on that. A. PERLMAN

Six Million Jews Are Deprived Of Papers By Russian Censorship
 Petrograd, Russia, April 22.—After a spirited fight the Duma has passed the censorship bill, which was introduced to limit the powers of the censor, but in the form in which it was adopted actually increases them. The debate over the bill was extremely bitter and the members of the opposition parties attacked the government and the papers controlled by it savagely. Harlow, the leader of the "cadets," and the socialist deputy Adomow accused the government of bribing the editors and publishers of all large dailies and offered proof for their charge.
 The progressive deputy Romach created a sensation by producing a secret circular sent out by the minister of the interior which instructed the police to suppress all Jewish publications, even if not printed in Yiddish.
 "Six million Jews have been robbed of their newspapers," the deputy said. "The only Jewish papers still tolerated are a few insignificant weeklies which support the government, because they are paid for doing so. Not one of the suppressed seven Jewish dailies, hundreds of weekly and monthly papers committed the slightest offense. They did not antagonize the government, but were loyal without a single exception."
 "The only reason for their suppression was the anti-Semitic spirit which dominates the authorities from cabinet ministers down. This spirit is also responsible for the fact that the post-offices have been ordered to destroy all letters and postal cards written in Yiddish."

Millions Needed For Jewish Relief Work in Poland
New York Committee Seeks More Funds as Result of Destruction of Towns During the Present War
 All the relief work of the joint distribution committee among the Jews of Poland, in which several millions of dollars were expended, has been nullified by the war between the Soviet and Polish armies, according to reports received by Judge Otto A. Rosalsky, chairman of the Greater New York Campaign for Jewish War Sufferers Abroad.
 The committee faced the task of raising additional millions of dollars as a result of the war in Poland. Relief work in Warsaw and towns in the fighting zone has been temporarily abandoned. Many of the communities had been virtually restored, but all this reconstruction work has been wiped out, the chairman has learned from his representatives in Europe.
 "It is an old truth that whoever fights the Jew is the sufferer," Judge Rosalsky said yesterday. "Six million Jews were made homeless by five years of foreign and domestic wars. Through the joint distribution committee to raise funds for which the greater New York campaign was organized, we had succeeded in restoring them in some measure to normal health and economic independence."

The Chairman Of The Jewish Relief Work in Sumter County Appeals To The Citizens Of Sumter County
 I was asked by some of my friends to assume the chairmanship in Sumter County for the Jewish Relief work. I did so very gladly, because I feel that the call to service in this particular interest is so imperative as to be irresistible. It is a work in behalf of humanity.
Six million Jews in Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Palestine, Turkey and Siberia are dying of starvation, helplessness, they wander homeless, hungry, in rags. Their suffering is worse than death—it is the lingering torture of starvation, the piteous tragedy of emaciation, the horrible waiting, in agony of hunger, for the grim reaper to end their misery. These six million despairing souls are totally dependent on American generosity for the bare necessities of life.
 What matters it if they do belong to other nations? What matters it if they do live in other climes? Success of suffering knows no lines of demarcation. It is enough for us to know that these people are dying day by day, dying amidst such surroundings as to make death a blessed release, dying amidst such misery and suffering as to make the driest crust of bread or a bowl of the thinnest soup a real luxury. Children huddled

RUSSIAN JEWS.
 A correspondent of Ensauro-EZ, a paper edited by Rabbi Voranger of San Francisco, gives a pitiful picture of the condition of the Jews in Russia. He says that poverty, starvation and disease are the afflictions which now beset the six million Jews in that country and Roumania. The government does afford some modicum of relief to the starving Russian moujik and laborer; but for the Jew there is no charity, no mercy! The little assistance which used to come from America and England is diminishing daily. Part of the money sent by relatives who have emigrated is stolen in transshipment, whilst those who could make sure that their doles would reach their destination are unemployed, and "sweated" when they work, and are no longer able to render any assistance. The revolutionary movement has destroyed the industries in the Pale. Thus, for instance, whilst the factories at Lodz are not working, or only working half time, the Russian factories at Moscow have been over busy. But in Moscow there are not any Jewish workers. What is to become of the mass of the Jewish population in Russia is beyond man's ken. It is useless to look for the cause when a calamity is staring in the face. It is useless to point out that early and imprudent marriage are one of the causes of the great poverty. A preacher of Malthusianism would probably be stoned if he dared to suggest it to the Jews of Russia. Russian regeneration would do something, but regeneration

Representative of National Headquarters Here to Take Part
 Hamilton Bond, representing national headquarters of the American Jewish Relief committee, is in Ogden assisting S. G. Dye, county chairman, in raising the remainder of Weber county's quota of $7,500 for the relief of the suffering Jews in the devastated war zones. Mr. Bond declared today that there are six million Jews in eastern and central Europe whom the war has left dependent upon America. "About 500,000 of these are starving, ragged, helpless, orphaned children. This is a condition where neither race, creed nor nationality counts. Nothing counts except humanity."
 Mr. Bond comes to Utah from Tennessee where the campaign was recently conducted and states that Tennessee gave $250,000 for the saving of these lives. Weber county has raised about half of her quota and it is expected that she will contribute the remainder within the next few days. Headquarters have been established at the Weber club.

SEVILLE, April 12.—All Spaniards venerate the name of Isabel la Catolica, nor is the impressionable De Amicis the only foreigner who has trembled and wept before the enshrined memorials, jewel box, mirror, missal, and crown of her royal womanhood. She is a precious figure in poor Spain's sunset revery—a saint beneath a conquering standard, a silken lady in a soldier's tent. Yet this peerless, Queen, merciful, magnanimous, devout, "the shield of the innocent," caring supremely for the glory of God and the good of her country, gave consent, albeit reluctant, to the establishment of the Inquisition, Christianity's chief scandal and Spain's most fatal blight. So ironic were the stars of Isabel.

Wherever one moves in Spain the sickening breath of the auto da fé lingers in the air. In such a square, we read, was once a mighty holocaust of Jews; beneath our feet, we are told, is a mass of human bones and cinders. This sunshiny Seville,
